"Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it." (Matt. 7:13-14)

OUR WEBSITE: <https://thebereanwayfellowship.org>

You will find lots of teaching and preaching on salvation, cults and world religions, eschatology (end times), and grace, as well as Sunday-morning sermons on video, our outreach, and much more.

God has so blessed our small church that we have also moved into our own location in Lafayette for Sunday service and midweek Bible study. ~

CHRISTIANESE

THE LANGUAGE OF THE APOSTATE CHURCH

Buzzwords of the New World Order are now in mainstream use in "Christian" circles. Pseudo-Christians, as well as some real Christians, are fooled and entrapped by all the rave. This Christianese is evidence of the marriage of the world with the false church.

The buzzwords we list on our website are a partial list of the most widely used words, especially in Emergent Church dogma, as well as in fringe spiritual groups, which include the New Age Movement. The social-propagandist dogma of doing everything we can to stave off or even halt the social ills of a Godless society, such as hunger and homelessness, has been pushed onto the Church, with many Church leaders having bought that lie. (Mt 26:11)

False teachers like Rick Warren and many others have substantially aided this process with their "best-selling" books espousing unbiblical uses of the Gospel message as it outlines true Christian responses to the situations of a fallen world.

Helping a Godless system remain Godless is not part of the true Church's biblical mandate! In fact, these false teachers serve to keep the Church from giving the greatest blessing it can give to this Godless world: to impart, undiluted, the true knowledge of the true God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as embodied in the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, who is the Christ.

Those in the world want Christians to spend their hard-earned finances, time, and other physical blessings. They'll even listen, up to a point, to the "Christianese" many now speak. However, when it comes to the real message of the Bible—such as repentance of all their sins, forgiveness of their fellow man, and, most important of all, obedience to Jesus Christ and His Gospel—they revolt and want to rid the world of any vestige of biblical truth. The lie of "inclusivity" must be preserved at all costs.

In the visible church, heresies and fake gospels, along with a "fake" Jesus, are what the people want to hear and imagine. Joyce Meyer, Beth Moore, Sarah Young, and many others are extremely popular with millions of followers who eat this stuff up as though it's biblical. Of course, one has to first know the Bible in order to discern whether a teaching is biblical.

All of this has replaced the true message of the Cross of Christ, which clearly espouses the tenets of repentance from original and personal sins, attaining it by and through personal faith in the merits of Christ's substitutional death on the Cross of Calvary. Biblical ignorance is ignorance of God and His Word. A false biblical teaching is a false Christ, who is not the Word made flesh, and therefore not the Savior. God and His Word are ONE! (Jn 1:1)

Again, as I frequently ask, whose report will you believe? God's, through His Word, or the world's, through man's "Christianese" all packaged together with pseudo-science, pseudo-wisdom, and pseudo-psychology?

The acceptance of figures like Billy Graham, whom many have referred to as the Evangelical Pope, afforded the "powers that be" an inroad into the so-called Protestant Church at large. Tragically, it seems that he and many others, like Bill Bright of Campus

Crusade for Christ, were effectively bought. The women just mentioned, all of whom are clearly false teachers of the Scripture, are also in the White House around Donald Trump as his advisors, with major false teacher Paula White leading that charge.

This plan of the globalists, which was fomented and meticulously organized by the members of what's called the Frankfurt School of socialism at the turn of the 20th century, thus flowed into the American university/college mainstream system of education. They, in turn, caused a curriculum change from Christian based to secular.

In particular, the so-called Ivy-League universities, from where most world leaders are chosen, were infiltrated by these people, who included John Dewey, who was one of the progressives of the time along with Teddy Roosevelt. The Clintons and the Obamas, as well as some of the recent newcomers to Congress, also identify themselves as "progressives," which is another name for communism/socialism.

The whole world was to be infected by this major push before WWI, and accomplishment of this goal was indeed the triumph of Satan's minions. The last thing on God's hierarchy of importance, the world around us, has been elevated to the very top of their own list.

Not only was it elevated there via some obscure curriculum in thought, but it is actually acted out, in time, by millions of perverted evangelical churches through various good-sounding programs under the guise of doing God's work of helping the unfortunate in our society.

In this manner, mainstream evangelical churches now serve the world instead of Christ Jesus. It is precisely this practice of employing biblical themes and terminology that fools the majority, who lack a solid biblical base of their own to which they can attach their "Christianity."

So-called German higher criticism has triumphed by advancing the Godless ideas of Bible experts who put a foreign, even pagan, spin on the essential doctrines of Christianity. These heresies were then inserted deep into the political realm, mainly through the democratic party. The lie of democracy, along with the lie of Darwinian evolution, is the battle cry of all the liberals, especially college-age youths.

They've become "change agents" to help promote the various ultra-liberal views being pushed on us today under one of the major buzzwords so popular today, such as "diversity." This term is supposed to convey the idea that unity between different people groups is desired and attainable, but it is only a ploy, because no one is actually wanting to become one with anybody else. They have succeeded in duping many in the Church into buying the nonsense that there is a compatibility between the invisible biblical Church and the world, through some sort of kindness. (READ: II Cor 6:14-18) For example, Ellen DeGeneres always ends her show with: "Be kind to one another."

The promotion of the concept of "entitlements" has taken hold in these people's minds. The Cloward-Piven strategy of communist/socialist perversion of depleting the government's financial resources through entitlement "programs" has found its way into society, with anyone now being entitled to anything they want.

The foreigner who now wants to cross U.S. borders at will and partake of the nation's welfare system without any personal merit in the system; the perversion that is LGBTQ+ which forces one and all to comply by a sheer, in-your-face opposition to true law and common sense; plus much more—these exemplify the current theme, which is spreading fast like the disease that it is.

Further examples range from the spineless, godless twits who call themselves our leaders who expect to be addressed and treated like royalty; to the outright theft of our personal information through so-called social media, which is then sold for billions to corporations so they can exploit us economically, as well as being sold to governments so they can grade us as to our status as citizens, by parameters they define; to all the false teachers and preachers of a social gospel who thus present a "fake" Jesus who doesn't exist and therefore cannot save.

All of this is perpetuated in the name of diversity. Dumber than stupid are all who agree and participate with these worthless individuals and their godless humanistic trash. Under their influence in the visible church, gone are the eternal truths of the holy blood of Jesus having been spilled for our sins.

Gone is the truth of having to repent from sins and lead a changed life in attitude and practice in order to benefit from that most holy sacrifice.

Gone is the truth of allowing the Bible to dictate what behavior should be throughout society, even just generally speaking, having been replaced with psychobabble and Eastern mysticism along with the search for the mystical inner self to find peace and acceptance.

Gone are the days when sins were the recognized culprits of bad behavior; the truth of God's Word has been replaced with psychoanalysis, which claims the ability to modify behavior according to man's standards. Behavior, which is the mere outcome of sin, is thus regarded as being the culprit itself, rather than just the outcropping of the real problem, namely, SIN.

Much of the terminology originated through the fast-becoming normalization of psychoanalytic jargon. Amazingly, this phenomenon was birthed and greedily accepted by many who grew up with the knowledge of the Ten Commandments. About 17 of the 25-plus most influential thinkers of the enlightenment era, mostly Germans, came from men whose fathers were Lutheran preachers. Go figure.

The last of the big influential periods of "enlightenment" of which America's founders were at the top of the list as well—such as George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Thomas Paine, etc.—was the one that still permeates the veins of the United States today, only more freely and viciously. The citizens back then, even if deceived with respect to their personal salvation, had the belief that they should, at least generally, obey God, assuming that there is one.

The basic tenets of the teachings of Jesus Christ found in the new Testament were accepted as advantageous, even if the Savior Himself was not. Today, this is not the case by a long shot. It is instead assumed that Friedrich Nietzsche, one of the 25-plus, was right in saying that there is no God, or that if there ever was one, he is now dead because he was self-created only in the minds of weak and ignorant people who needed such a crutch.

Now that humanity knows better, the mind-set is that we should all get on with life, trusting our scientists and professional leaders. Never mind that mankind is totally destroying itself with the very idea of social inclusion along with the legal freedom to engage in the most horrific sins, which God calls abominations and perversions. The Apostle Paul said of these sexual/gender perversions that not only do these people sin against God and humanity in general, but these are sins against their own bodies. (1 Cor 6:18)

Google and Facebook are the two giants in destroying humanity and are able to do so with relative ease, because the people actually aid in their own destruction quite willingly. Believing the lie that these "social media" conglomerates are free tools to help society finally become united, most are oblivious to the fact that they are instead multibillion-dollar corporations which make their gargantuan profits from selling information about people's personal lives.

Shoshana Zuboff authored a book she spent seven years researching, titled The Age of Surveillance Capitalism, in which she makes the case that contemporary market strategy is as it has always been in the past, except with a "dark" twist. She correctly points out that in times past, man took the natural land, called it real estate, and thus built a moneymaking strategy. The same is true for work, which was changed to labor and marketed in similar fashion to favor the cartels that later formed monster-sized international corporations.

Never before has the world had such a stranglehold on its citizens as is afforded by the use of surveillance capitalism. It was fine-tuned at the end of the 1980s and with the advent of the WWW quickly advanced to where we are today. Zuboff states: "At its core, surveillance capitalism is parasitic and self-referential. It revives Karl Marx's old image as a vampire that feeds on labor, but with an unexpected turn..."

What Zuboff terms "surveillance capitalism" is the taking of, without explicit permission—in effect, stealing—our human personal experience in life to predict a reaction for now, soon, and later and selling those to governments and huge corporations in order for them to keep track and grade each individual.

People think these "services" like Facebook are free because they cost them nothing, when in fact these services cost them whatever personal information they chose to freely trumpet to the rest of the world. It's similar to people who don't understand the relationship between money and value. One is one; the other is the other. Yet they both play out in life such that if someone has money, he is said to have value. However, having money is not the value; rather, the value is in how this money is used. Money is only a medium of exchange. No one can eat it, or live under it, or fill up their gas tank with it, or use it as medicine, etc.

Billions of people “share” family pictures and even very personal data via the Internet, and every single bit of it is captured, stored, categorized and SOLD. There are no firewalls, blocks, or other so-called “privacy guarantees”! The information given is simply sold. All of it at that! Each time someone types in what they did that day, who’s having a birthday party, personal medical info, etc., they are putting money in the pockets of the owners of these media without knowing it and completely voluntarily.

We are warned of hackers but what’s the point? All data is sold without exception! No wonder that the heads of those who engineered all of this a few decades ago won’t open this up to their own children to be as stupid as most others. They realize and have actually publicly pointed out that what they created is ruining society. Young people can hardly carry on a conversation with someone without wanting to “text.” The draw to the screen, laptop, phone, iPad, etc., is so strong that they lose themselves in that activity, if it can be called an activity.

Christians are right in the middle of all this as they don’t want to be left out. Indeed, the system is forcing all of us to participate on some level. The epidemic of getting tattoos did the same thing among supposed Christians! The 5G system that’s being installed worldwide will allow the government to grade its citizens and reward the ones who fly right, according to the regime’s standards, and punish those who don’t. There will soon be, and quite literally, no place to hide. So-called 5G is the technology able to connect every sender with every receiver, something that wasn’t possible or practical to do before now. The health issues concerning all this are another story!

The infrastructure to accomplish all this is steamrolling ahead at breakneck speed worldwide. All governments are on high alert to be the first with the most. Right now, China seems to have the upper hand, especially through its giant media/IT corporation Huawei, about which there has been much political controversy. Those who control 5G and its successor technologies control the world. Anti-Christ needs the latest technology because he is not God. The “one world religion” with its fake gospel is right in step with him. All everyone is waiting for is the “fake” Jesus, the real-life person chosen to be the anti-Christ. The devil knows and is brash enough to not want to be called anti-new age or some other fake nonsense. Only anti-“Christ” will do, and rightly so! Thus, the world is head over heels in love with the “religion” that speaks “Christianese” but which wholeheartedly embraces the concepts of pseudo-tolerance and inclusion of every sin imaginable.

Remember, only those who are “willingly” ignorant of God and His Word, and who have an insatiable desire for selfishness, end up being deceived by Satan and his “brotherhood” of godless men. As true Christians, we need to bury our heads in the Bible ever more deeply and come up for air only once in a while. Prayer, too, is ever more essential in these last days. I am, of course, talking about serious—on our knees—entreating of the Lord God with “strong crying” (Heb 5:7) on behalf of all who must yet come to the faith in Christ Jesus and be a part of the true invisible church, the bride of Christ, which is soon to be raptured from this cursed world and all its “Christianese” language and practitioners. ~

THE SUCCESS OF LAWLESSNESS: The Professing Church, the World, and Antinomianism, by Walt Hartwich

The unconscionable destruction of planet earth as we know it, which results in the battle of Armageddon or WWII, will be the culmination of global lawlessness.

In The Success of Lawlessness the author details how and why lawlessness is a success. He points out that world leaders routinely deviate from the dictates of their governments' constitutions in the five basic realms of modern human existence: political, financial, educational, medical, and spiritual. This deviation is what results in complete lawlessness, which is achieved by incorporating the concept of the fourth kind of appearances as it was first formulated by first-century-B.C. Greek philosopher Epictetus.

There's only one sensible conclusion the searching mind can reach considering the evidence presented in these pages: Sin = Lawlessness. (I John 3:4)
