1st qtr. 2012

A news update of Victory Seekers Ministries
Published Quarterly by Walt and Jill Hartwich

No. 35

Victory Seekers Ministries now has a website. With the assistance of a team, we have been working diligently for six months designing and compiling the information to get the site ready. Although it is not anywhere complete, as there will always be more to include, we have a good start and invite you to check it out: www.victoryseekersministries.com. Since we believe we are at the 5-seconds-to-12:00 time frame for life as we know it and the rapture to occur, we cannot wait any longer to put our voice “out there” in the World Wide Web and share our witness to the world.

Please check back often to see how it continues to grow, and read up on end-time current events which will be updated on a weekly basis.

Victory Seekers has begun a Sunday-morning gathering on a weekly basis to worship and teach the uncompromising Word of God. All our long-time VS Update readers know by now that the “seekers” in our ministry name is about “seeking the truth,” not about being “seeker-friendly.” If you have no place to worship the Lord Jesus Christ and are “seeking the truth,” then by all means you are welcome to worship with us. Contact us for our Tippecanoe County meeting place.

THE DOCTRINE OF SATAN

Archenemy # 1 for all of us creatures under heaven is none other than the rebel angel who was created by God as a Cherub who was to lead the other Cherubim in guarding the very throne of the Most High. Cherubim are beings created by the Lord to perform the duties of protecting the Holiness of the Lord in heaven. Satan, as far as we know from the Scriptures, was created perfect until iniquity, sin, or rebellion was found in him. We’re not told how or exactly when this happened, but at some point, probably in eternity past, if one takes the view that the angels were created in that period we call eternity and about which we know next to nothing. Satan began to desire to be like El-Elyon the God Most High. (Is. 14:13, 14) There is another view that has some merit which says that all the angels were created at the same time when God spoke the universe into existence.

Neither of the above-mentioned views or any other that might be in existence is of consequence to the truth of the information contained in the rest of the Bible which outlines who we are, how we got here, what we’re doing here, and where we are going. The so-called Scarlet Thread of the Savior from creation to the consummation of the ages is clearly advanced, regardless of the view one takes on when or how Satan was created and became self-deceived.

The fact is that this world as we know it clearly has a force that is evil, to say the least. To say that this evil is somehow cooked up in the mind of man is absurd when considering the very fact that this downslide of morals has been going on uninterrupted since the fall of Adam and Eve. There is no precedent for the argument that Adam, or Eve, was the one to keep this evil afloat. Yes, they spiritually were now separated from the Father in the sense that their family relationship with Him was now severed. It is also true that now their physical bodies were subject to decay and eventual death. Their offspring, however, were not totally murderous, Abel was righteous; the voice of Abel's blood cries out to the Lord from the ground in Gen. 4:10. Once Satan got in, however, he was able with the help of many of their offspring, over time, to influence mankind to the point of working out the evil he needs, in his mind, to counter the Lord God. No, the source of this evil cannot be just in the mind of sinful man. Some other force was and is necessary to perpetuate this rebellion toward God in the organized way in which we are able to observe it.

One reason the lie of evolution is perpetuated is because those who believe it are, among other things, hiding the fact that this world and everything in it is going to burn. (2 Peter 3:7) This biblically foretold destruction flies in the face of the false and really quite stupid idea that we are evolving toward greatness, advancing ever forward and upward. The fact that society, on a global scale, is totally whacked is a no-brainer to everyone—it's just that not everyone is willing to admit it.

It is a fact that all despots in the world, past, present, and future, have a great capacity for organization and leadership, and this has been soundly proven in the likes of the various Caesars and rulers of old, as well as ones more recent in our memory, such as Hitler, Stalin, Mao Tse-tung, Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, Saddam Hussein, and the list goes on. These individuals knew how to rally their troops, etc. As the saying goes, "Behind every good man is a good woman"; so it is true that behind every good despot is the devil. Lest I'm being misconstrued, I want to make it clear that not all despots are necessarily evil on the outside. In fact, they rarely are, until they get the majority control of the power structure that is. We're plainly told that Satan and his ministers, some of whom are actual humans, as in the King of Tyre, mentioned in Ezekiel in the 28th chapter, along with those who come as angels of light in 2 Cor. 11:14 are the agents who affect the events happening in the world.

Someone once correctly pointed out that "the worst are full of energy and intensity, while the best lack conviction and are full of apathy." The example is that Jehovah's Witnesses, which is a clear cult, distribute their writings and their convoluted theology by "door knocking" more than any other religious group. Mormonism and Hinduism, along with the false Church headquartered in Rome at the Vatican, all work harder and produce more material to push their beliefs on the world's populace than do true biblical Christians. Of course, one reason is that all that needs to be said about what one should believe is encapsulated in the original Holy Scriptures.

Some, like Dr. Kent Hovind—known as Dr. Dino, creator and lecturer on creation vs. evolution and dinosaurs—believe that the angels were all created by the end of God's "work" of creating and all is thus finished as per Gen. 2:1, 2. Others, like famed preacher of the turn of the 20th century Lewis Sperry Chafer and the more current theologian Dr. Arnold Fruchtenbaum, for instance, believe that there was a prior creation which went into chaos as is explained in the infamous “gap” theory, which, after much research and study over a ten-year period, we vehemently oppose. As to the person and being of Satan, we have the following truth. When God created Satan, all that was in the blueprint, to which God limited Himself to, was complete in the categories of wisdom and beauty.

Dr. Fruchtenbaum explains the creation of Satan in his online teaching “Satanology: Doctrine of Satan” referencing Ezekiel 28:11-15 as follows:

“Concerning the origin of Satan, this passage points out four things. First of all, when Satan was created, ‘he sealed up the sum in the two areas of wisdom and beauty’ (vv.11-12). The Hebrew expression translated as sealed up the sum means ‘to fill up a pattern’ or ‘to fill up a blueprint.’ The picture that Ezekiel is portraying is that when God began to do His work of creation, He chose to limit Himself to a specific pattern or blueprint and willed not to go beyond this. When animals were created they filled up only so much of this pattern; when man was created he filled up so much more of this pattern; and angels even more. But when God created this particular individual, he sealed up the sum; that is, he filled up the entire pattern in the two areas of wisdom and beauty. This means that of all created beings, Satan is by far the wisest and the most beautiful of them all. All those portraits of Satan that artists have painted over the centuries which portray him as ugly, gaunt, and hideous are simply wrong, for the exact opposite is true. Of all created beings, Satan is deemed the wisest and the most beautiful.” ( <http://ariel.org/come-and-see.htm> )

This is clearly recorded in Isaiah 14:10-15:

...Have you also become as weak as we? Have you become like us? Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, And the sound of your stringed instruments; the maggot is spread under you, and worms cover you. How you are fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, You who weakened the nations! For you have said in your heart: ‘I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation on the farthest sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the most high.’ Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, To the lowest depths of the Pit.

Satan had what theologians call “the power of contrary choice.” This is something even God doesn’t have. God cannot deny Himself. God cannot lie, or choose contrary to His nature. He is the Truth and Life, thus those actions would be self-destructive and counter to the concept of eternity.

Satan, on the other hand, is a murderer, a liar, and the father of lies. (John 8:44) The name Lucifer is a mistranslation that should have been either “son of the morning” or “daystar.” The Amplified Bible has a rather good footnote on the name of Lucifer from Isaiah 14:12:

“The Hebrew for this expression—‘light bringer’ or ‘shining one’—is translated ‘Lucifer’ in The Latin Vulgate, and is thus translated in the King James Version. But because of the association of that name with Satan, it is not now used in this and other translations. Some students feel that the application of the name Lucifer to Satan, in spite of the long and confident teaching to that effect, is erroneous. The application of the name to Satan has existed since the third century A.D., and is based on the supposition that Luke 10:18 is an explanation of Isaiah 14:12, which many authorities believe is not true. ‘Lucifer,’ the light bringer, is the Latin equivalent of the Greek word ‘Phosphoros,’ which is used as a title of Christ in II Pet. 1:19 and corresponds to the name ‘radiant and brilliant Morning star’ in Rev. 22:16, a name Jesus called Himself.” (The Zondervan Corp. and The Lockman Found. 1987, p. 769)

Like the tradition of perverting the birth of Christ in the pagan Saturnalia celebration, a fest so widely accepted today, as well as the tradition of perverting the resurrection of Christ with the Easter (Ishtar) holiday of the fertility queen, so using the name Lucifer to describe Satan is a perversion that is totally ingrained in our psyche. This perversion can be eradicated only by the Spirit of God Himself illuminating the truth to individuals. We don’t find Satan or the devil being called Lucifer anywhere in the Bible. Neither the apostles nor Jesus ever used that term for him. It seems clear that once we find out the truth, we need to be diligent to adhere to it no matter what “tradition” says. The King James Bible, though very good, is not perfect.

Arnold Fruchtenbaum agrees by stating that the name Lucifer is a mistranslation in the King James Bible and should be rendered “son of the morning” or “daystar.” (Online teaching on Satan, Ariel Ministries)

I just read an e-mail from a brother-friend in the Lord who forwarded a very good teaching on the paganism and evils inherent in the person of Santa Claus, a teaching which unfortunately stopped short of including the whole “Christmas” thing such as the lighted multicolor evergreen trees, wreaths, gift giving, Yule logs, etc. Add to this the humanistic stupid songs that get mixed in with actual songs about Christ’s birth, songs like “White Christmas,” “Jingle Bells,” “Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer,” “Blue Christmas,” and “I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus.” These tunes are widely known by pagans and professing Christians alike as “Christmas Songs”—all lumped together as it always is—for a normal marriage between Christ’s Church and the pagan world. Never mind the clear commands to ALL true believers to separate from the world = the satanic system and its pagan religious customs. All of this was originally a part of the licentious pagan festival of Saturnalia, a humanistic holiday honoring everything Satan promotes and the orgies and drunkenness that accompany it. True Christians did separate and were noticed and persecuted because of it. Sounds like many “office” Christmas parties of today, doesn’t it? Since Satan comes only to steal, kill, and destroy, according to John 10:10, this is obviously evil. I cannot imagine how one could separate Santa Claus from the rest of “Christmas” any more than one can separate the Pope from Roman Catholicism, yoga from Hinduism, or the biblical Jesus from true Christianity. If only the one pagan aspect is removed and the other pagan aspect is left, what's left over? Answer, the other pagan half, of course. All of the above examples are as "echad" (Hebrew for "oneness in plurality") as the Holy Trinity of Elohim (Genesis chapter 1) or anyone who sleeps with a harlot. (1 Cor. 6:16) The whole thing is the whole thing and it's indivisible.

SATAN'S FIVE "I WILLS"

The five I wills of Satan are proof positive that the health-and-wealth and the name-it-and-claim-it crowd weren't the first to make positive confessions that won't come true.

1. "I will ascend into heaven" refers to usurping God's throne. This is reserved only for Jesus. (Eph. 1:20, 21)
2. "I will exalt my throne above the stars of God." Stars are a metaphor for angels, and in this desire Satan wanted to take Michael's position of archangel. (3 John 38:7; Jude 17; Rev. 1:20; 9:1; 12:4)
3. "I will also sit in the mount of the congregation in the north." Satan wanted to become the Messianic ruler over Israel—this is referring to the Millennium. (Ps. 48:2; Is. 2:2; 4:5, 6)
4. "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds." Cloud is a symbol for the Shekinah Glory which belongs only to God. (Ex. 16:10; 40:34-38; 1 Kings 8:10, 11)
5. "I will be like the most high." El-Elyon = possessor of all creation. (Gen. 14:18, 19) Satan wants to be God; this is the satanic motive. This is also the lie with which he entrapped Adam, Eve, the King of Tyre, and a great many of today's professing believers. "You can be just like God!" (Gen. 3:5)

Anyone desiring to be like God has the mind of Satan! The mind of Christ, on the other hand, is to be a servant. (Phil. 2:4, 5)

SATAN'S FIVE NAMES IN THE BIBLE

Satan means adversary and resister, and it is used 36 times. Devil means accuser and slanderer, and is used 35 times. Belial means worthless, wicked, and lawless, and it is used in 2 Cor. 6:15. Beelzebub, which means lord of the flies, or dung, is used 3 times. Beelzebub is similar to Beelzebub, but can have the further meaning of Lord of the Royal Palace. Some scholars assert that it refers to Satan being the "god of the power of the air."

SATAN'S TEN TITLES

1. Son of the morning—Is. 14:12.
2. Destroyer/Apollon (in Greek)/Abaddon (in Hebrew)—Rev. 9:11.
3. Prince of the cosmos/world—John 12:31; 16:11.
4. Prince of the power of the air—Eph. 2:2.
5. God of the age—ion in Greek also god of philosophy = lover of wisdom—2 Cor. 4:4.

6. The evil one—poneros = corrupted nature—John 17:15.
7. The anointed Cherub that covers—refers to the canopy over God’s throne. Other Cherubs were under the throne. He’s no longer anointed. In Gen. 3:22-24 they guard the Ark of the Covenant from above and in Ezek. 1:5-14 they are fully described. The name “Cherub” was also the name of a district in Babylonia.
8. Prince of demons—Luke 11:15—this speaks of authority over fallen angels.
9. King of Tyre—Ezekiel 28.
10. King of Babylon—this speaks of control over nations—Isaiah 14:12-14.

SATAN’S FIVE DESCRIPTIONS

1. He is the accuser of the brethren as in individual saints—Rev. 12:10; in Zech. 3:1, 2.
2. He can appear as an angel of light—this is counterfeiting the angel of God—2 Cor. 11:14.
3. He is the tempter—peirazon in Greek—Matt. 4:3; 1 Thess. 3:5.
4. He is the deceiver—planon in Greek present participle—denotes a continuous action.
5. He is the spirit that works in the sons of disobedience—Eph. 2:2.

SATAN’S THREE BEAST REPRESENTATIONS

1. The serpent—this is found throughout the Old and New Testaments.
2. The great red Dragon—Rev. 12:3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 13, 17.
3. A roaring lion—1 Peter 5:8.

THE NATURE OF SATAN

Under the category of the nature of Satan, we can see that he is a created being; thus he is a creature. He belongs to the highest order of angels, the Cherubim. He was the 1st in rank of the Cherubim because he was the “anointed” Cherubim, and Michael the archangel respected him in Jude 8, 9 in spite of his having been thrown out of heaven.

As already touched on, he is the leader of all the fallen angels. He is associated with angelic beings in Matt. 12:41 and Rev. 12:0. Satan is a confirmed sinner according to 1 John 3:8, and this is characterized in at least nine ways:

1. He has ambitious pride—wants to be like God/he rebelled—Ezek. 28:17; 1 Tim. 3:6.
2. He is characterized by untruth—he is the first one to lie and the father of lies—John 8:44.
3. He has a crooked nature played out in his “craftiness”—2 Cor. 2:11; 11:3, 4; Eph. 6:11.
4. He has deceptiveness—played out in his actions—2 Cor. 11:14; 2 Thess. 2:9, 10.
5. He has ability of miraculous powers—2 Thess. 2:9; Rev. 13:11-15; Matt. 7:22, 23—he duplicates miraculous powers as with Moses in Exodus 7:11, 12; 22; 12:7.
6. He has limitations (naturally; he is not God).
7. He has no “omni” attributes.
8. God places specific limitations on him—as in Job 1 & 2.

9. He can be resisted—Eph. 6:10-18; James 4:7; 1 Peter 5:8, 9.

SATAN'S DWELLING PLACES

Satan has six dwelling places that we know of from Scripture. Chronologically, they can be listed as two historic dwelling places, one present and three in the future:

1. At the throne of God, to guard God's throne, had access to God (past)—Ezek. 28.
2. In the Garden of Eden (past); if one takes the view of Lewis Sperry Chafer and others, then this speaks of a "mineral garden" as in Ezek. 28:13, not the "vegetable" Garden of Eden as in Gen. 2 & 3.
3. Atmospheric heavens (current)—Eph. 2:2; 6:2; access to God's heaven for accusing brethren.
4. Confinement to earth (future)—Rev. 12:7-17; this is during the second half of the Tribulation.
5. Temporary confinement in the Abyss (future)—Rev. 20:1-3; part of Sheol Rev. 20:1-3.
6. Permanently thrown into the Lake of Fire (future)—Rev. 20:7-10; this is eternal.

In his book Satan: His Motives and Methods, Lewis Sperry Chafer correctly points out that the [Satanic system] is wholly evil. He goes on to say that those who deny this evil do not realize that all Scripture estimates are made from the standard of the holiness of God. (p. 50-51) "Though the unsaved are morally educated, refined, or religious, they are not righteous in God's sight." (ibid.)

There are many places in Scripture where the word "world" was used when it should have been translated "world system." It should be noted that the world, as far as the rocks, trees, oceans, birds and bees, etc., belong to God and while suffering the ill effects of a sinful planet, they are not a part of the "Satanic systems" as are the political, educational, financial, social, etc., systems of this world. Following are some examples: 2 Peter 1:4, "Having escaped the corruption of the world" = satanic system. 2 Peter 2:20, "Having escaped the pollutions of the world = satanic system. James 1:27, "Pure and undefiled religion before the Father is this...and to keep oneself unspotted from the world = satanic system.

The same is true of James 4:4; 1 John 2:16, 17; 3:1, 13; 4:4, 5; 5:4; Galatians 1:4; Colossians 1:13; Romans 12:2; 1 Corinthians 7:29-31; 2 Corinthians 7:10.

The apostle John used the human-inhabited world (i.e., rocks and trees) a total of 95 times: in his Gospel (68), in 1 John (23), in 2 John (1), and in Revelation (3).

The Greek Kosmos is used 187 times; Ion, 41 times; Oikumeni, 14 times. Kosmos, in opposition to chaos, is an ordered system leaving God out. It currently exists in our culture and includes all the various man-made/Satan-inspired systems such as the political, financial, medical, entertainment, and education systems, as well as something called the Military Industrial Complex, which is the selling of weapons to the world in staggering numbers. Of this selling of armaments, the United States, Russia, and Germany, respectively, make up the world's largest arms dealers. Dwight D. Eisenhower warned that this "Complex" would get out of hand because it cannot really be controlled once it starts. Ion is an age or period of time. Oikumeni is the world inhabited by humanity, as in the trees, mountains, seas, etc. Without God, the kosmos will pass away.

But before this happens, the campaign of Armageddon will happen, which is why the countries that don't produce weapons will need to buy them from those that do. We're nearing this time frame known as the Day of the LORD with alarming speed, as Jerusalem is slowly being surrounded already, considering that many of the world's elite have much political influence there as well as troops on the ground. These supposed "peacekeepers" and "negotiators" will in the end comprise full-strength armies ready and willing to do battle in God's Holy Land. This will be just as prophesied in Zechariah 14: 1-3, etc. They will battle against each other for domination of the earth and ultimately against the King of Kings and His bride as we return with Him to stop the further destruction of the planet, and for Jesus to begin setting up His everlasting earthly Kingdom. Come quickly, Lord Jesus!!!

Many people don't realize that there is a hierarchy in the domain of fallen angels just as there is for the Holy angels. In fact, structure guided by rules or commands is not absent from any form of life; fallen angels, demons, organized crime, despot governments, etc., all take the model of organization, from imitating the godly, holy angels, as well as human rulers, such as King David, who feared the Lord and followed His precepts and commands.

According to Ron Rhodes in his booklet on angels, Michael is first in rank among all the angels and is called the "chief prince" in Dan. 10:13. His name means "who is like God?" Gabriel also is of high rank and his name means "mighty one of God." Cherubim are next in line and are beautiful and majestic, and as previously mentioned, they guarded the very throne of God. Satan was first in rank of this kind or class of angel. We have not been able to find the meaning of Cherub; but interestingly, Cherub was the name given to one of the districts of Babylon according to Ezra 2:59 and Nehemiah 7:61.

Then we have the mention of Seraphim. This name means "burning ones," which denotes their burning devotion to God. They proclaim His perfect holiness as in Isaiah 6:1-5. There are angels who sit on lesser thrones in the immediate presence of God who are known simply as "Thrones." They point to their derived authority. Another class of angels is called Dominions. These exercise authority over specific domains in carrying out the will of God. (Eph. 1:20 21)

The two lowest ranks that we know anything about are "Rulers," who exercise rule and authority in different parts of God's kingdom, and "Authorities," who are subordinate to other angels and serve them in whatever capacity is needed. (Col. 1:16; 2:10)

In Genesis 6 we have a true account of super-beings in the Nephilim who sinned. They were the offspring of evil fallen angels who were able to take on human bodies and have sexual intercourse with the "daughters of men." The phrase "they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose" (KJV) speaks of a forceful taking. These marriages were not by the willful, loving consent of the women or of their parents. (Gen. 6:1-4)

We know that there are creatures called angels and that the phrase "sons of God" in Scripture, "bene ha Elohim" in Hebrew, only refers to angels. We have a true account. In contrast, pagan ideas of super-beings such as the ones in Greek and Roman mythology are not based on history, but rather on unbelievable and unreliable verbal traditions handed down that elevated such heroes as Hercules, who was able to make deals with the gods and to placate them. Also, the mythological gods of the pagan world all have anthropomorphic, or human, attributes. In contrast, the God of the Bible is wholly theomorphic, meaning that He has God attributes which only He can have and that He is totally sovereign in the fact that He alone rules ultimately over men.

Demons are unclean spirits who are extremely vicious and vile. There is mention in Scripture of demons having degrees of wickedness. (Matt. 12:45; Luke 11:26) This should not lead anyone to think, as some actually do, that demons and in particular Satan can be saved. We know of instances where professing Christians have and are praying for Satan and his demons to get saved. The writer of Hebrews tells us, “For to which of the angels did He ever say, ‘You are my Son, Today I have begotten you....’” (Hebrews 1:5)

Jude 1:6 declares, “And the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day.” The fact that these “chains” are everlasting means that there is no way out for fallen angels. Matthew 25:41 is also clear in describing the fate of Satan and his horde: “Then He will also say to those on the left hand, ‘Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels.’” Again, the word everlasting is the key to understanding that this punishment is eternal and once it starts, it continues perpetually. (See also Revelation 20:10.)

Demonic activity dramatically increased at the first advent of Christ compared to the relatively little which is recorded in the Old Testament in general. In the book of Acts we again see a decrease. It will, however, dramatically increase again to stop the Second Coming of Christ. We already see this in the exponential increase of the occult and witchcraft interests that the world has. Many of our leaders in high places, such as the White House, are involved with these types of activities, and at the United Nations it is common to see international heads of state engage in witchcraft of all kinds during the weekly New Age meditation sessions they have there.

Yes, Satan is not the funny-looking little mascot at our school ballgames. He is not some laughable character in movies or plays. He’s also not the fanged, bloodthirsty, monster movie type, although he’s behind all these. Rather, he is mostly the good-looking, kind, gentlemanly, helpful lover of social programs, through which Satan makes the most gains, especially the programs which he successfully sponsors with the help of well-meaning local churches in the name of Jesus.

Since Jesus defeated Satan at the cross, all he can do to trick us is to engage us at the level of our sensual flesh. Therefore, let’s live being led by the Spirit and not our fleshly desires. (Rom. 8:1)

Victory Seekers Ministries is based on the Scriptures Ephesians 5:11, “have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them,” and Colossians 2:4, 8-10, “lest any man should beguile you with enticing words...beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in Him, which is the head of all principality and power.”
